

My name is Krushawna Harper. I am the mom to five amazing teens and adults. Being the mom of multiple children with disabilities, I have had the honor of advocating for them and others for the past 15 years. It is my mission to empower other families with the resources they need to advocate for their loved ones. I am excited to join such an amazing team.